Leader Development Conference

Phnom Penh, Cambodia
2 & 3 December 2023

If you are a leader in a school or even thinking about becoming one, this bespoke leadership development event may be just what need.

Designed by prominent published author, Gavin Grift in partnership with International School of Phnom Penh, participants will get the opportunity to work with published authors and leading international school practitioners.

The unique structure of the program enables you to chart your own leadership course through a deliberate focus on where and how you direct your thinking. You will be provided with many opportunities to view your leadership in fresh and insightful ways enabling a path forward full of promise and opportunity.

International School of Phnom Penh

The time of year and convenient location in Cambodia make this highly accessible event an opportunity to explore all that Phnom Penh has to offer beyond the learning experience. We can't wait to work with you!

Conference Outcomes

- Direct self-awareness work to elevate your fulfillment, impact, and influence.
- Develop and understand your middle leadership identity.
- Embrace leadership as an embodiment of who you are.
- Strengthen your connectedness to colleagues grappling with similar challenges.
- Bolster your motivation to lead.
- Align your leadership toolbox to the goals most important to you.
- Deepen your empathy in both self and others.
- Acquire practical approaches to lead with humility, self-assurance, and purpose.

Conference Lines of Inquiry

- What has research taught us about self-awareness in the last twenty years and why should it matter to a leader?
- How might elevating our self-awareness assist us to lead with more clarity, purpose and poise?
- What might be some of the mental barriers associated with our leadership and how can they be overcome?
- What might be some of the emotions, thoughts, and actions important in overcoming common pain points of our leadership such as:
  - self-limiting beliefs?
  - the need to be liked?
  - overwhelm from constant change?
  - a lack of time?
  - working with difficult people?
- What role does self-awareness play in shaping our identity as leaders and the subsequent influence, fulfillment, and impact we have?
